

House Resolution No. 3255

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives hold in high esteem those Show-Me State educators who have admirably ensured that students are provided with challenging, rewarding, and productive learning environments in preparation for roles as lifelong learners and future societal leaders; and

Whereas, Judith Olson of Cassville has attained considerable distinction as a high school mathematics teacher with the Aurora R-VIII School District, an educational entity which educates more than twenty-one hundred students through the skilled services of nearly two hundred certificated staff in two elementary, one junior high, and one high school facilities in Lawrence County; and

Whereas, after an educational career which spanned thirty-two years, Judith Olson will bring her teaching activities to a close in retirement on July 1, 2004; and

Whereas, Judith Olson developed and maintained an exceptional reputation as a Math Club sponsor, AEA Building representative, Academic Coach, NHS advisor, FTA advisor, president-elect of Southwest Missouri District Association of Mathematics Teachers, and an officer in numerous local educational organizations and as a former teacher and department chair at Exeter High School; and

Whereas, Judith Olson also deserves mention of her membership with New Life Temple of Cassville, which she serves as secretary, and with Missouri State Teachers Association and DMCTM; and

Whereas, Judith Olson is the beloved mother of Tobi L. Bockman, who resides in Saint Louis with her husband, Aaron; and

Whereas, it is fitting and proper that the Missouri House of Representatives should pause in its diverse daily endeavors in order to acknowledge momentous occasions in the lives and careers of such stellar citizens as Judith Olson:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-second General Assembly, join unanimously to applaud Judith Olson's long, productive career and to convey to her this legislative body's heartiest congratulations and our best wishes as she partakes of the special opportunities and pleasures traditionally associated with the golden years of retirement; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Judith Olson of Cassville, Missouri.
